"We've Got 'Em Beat," Ware Says; Claims Anti-Ring Is Sure to Win

 WEVE got 'em beat," declared W. B. Ware, campaign manager for the El Paso City and County Democratic club, Saturday at 1 p. m. "The Citizens' ticket campaign has utterly collapsed. In So-corro, out of 60 votes cast, Seth B. Orndorif received 58 and our other candidates received 55. In Ysletz out of 170 votes, we received 110. According to returns just received from precinct 1, the result figures so far show a vote of 44 to 41 in our favor.

"I have just received a message from Clint, informing me that we are 2 to 1 ahead.

"There's no punch to their fight."

is expected that there will be a rush of voters at all of the polling places before they close. Because of the light vote, it was almost impossible to tell Saturday at noon, how the "ring" and "anti-ring" candidates were running.

Both campaign managers claim victories but they had little specific proof

Democratic club ticket—the "anti ring" ticket—the meeting was in fact a Lea meeting and the mayor was shown by the crowd attached no weight to the charges which had been made against him by the "ring" speakers, although the mayor was not a candidate and was only showing his appreciation of the work of his friends who worked for his election fast spring by speaking in their behulf in the county campaign.

Big Crowd.

The crowd was conceded by "ring" men present to have been the largest trans had ever assembled in Cleveland square for a political mass meeting. Lasay before 3 oclock every sear and chair in the square had been occupied and there were several hundred who shood about the speaker's stand and said on the lawn and listened to the speaches. Three sides of the square were so thickly lined with automobiles that traffic was almost blocked and the hawn was covered with people seated and standing.

An effort, early in the evening, to stamped a part of the crowd by sending a brass band pant the park falled with people seated and standing.

Claims Citizens' Ticket Ahead

"Indications are that we have carried the city," J. E. Quaid, manager for the Citizens' ticket said Saturday.

"I have no information of the outoffown vote, except that I think we have carried Ysleta.

"I believe our entire ticket will be elected."

The lieve our entire ticket will be elected."

The Ware for the "inig," were confident of the manager for the model of the city and the city precinct workers at their headquarters and in arranging to get out the late voteers.

In precinct No. 6, the polling places for which is at the city hall, only 150 and the entire County and City city was coming in slowly, the election of filedis reported. At the fire station only 160 votes had been polled at noon and the other city precinct were equally light, according to the report at the two headquarters.

MEXICAN BOY STEPS ON CAR
TRACK, CAUSES COLLISION

A small Mexican boy caused considerable damage to two smeller cars and escaped himself undurt in a collision early Saturday morning.

The two cars were approaching the old county hospital as a small boy stepped in front of the first car. The motorman of the rear car, not expecting such an abrupt stop from the first car, crashed into the back of it. No one was injured. There were seven passetigers in the two cars who got off and walked to the city. Much glass was shattered on both of the cars.

OFFICERS FAIL TO FIND REPORTED CAR DERAILERS

Formal opening of fire station No. 7, at Bliss and Estrella streets, was held Saturday morning at 10 oclock by fire chief John W. Wray, when Capt J. J. Sullivan and a crew of four men were assigned to the new station, with an American-La France triple combination of deputy sheriffs to make as fruitless engine. A report that a party of sympathizers degailing a smelter car, exused a party of deputy sheriffs to make as fruitless investigation which continued for over an hour.

According to residents of old Fort Bliss a party of men was seen near the tracks, causing the supposition that they intended to derail the car.
